

Executive Profile

Ms Alex Jarvis

Mobile: 0412 398 313

Ms Jarvis is currently working in the Health care industry as a Cosmetic Practitioner, Health care consultant and distributor of Medical devices.

Previously the Managing Director of Mentor Medical Systems (Aust) Pty. Ltd. for several years Mentor Corporation has been producing quality implants for over 25 years Mentor Corporation is a recognised leading International company supplying premium Aesthetic and Urological surgery products via branch offices and distributor outlets across the globe (NASDAQ listed company).

Ms Jarvis career is based on extensive knowledge of the Health Care Industry from practitioner to Managing Director /Consultancy Services to the Healthcare Industry and Risk Management.

Ms Jarvis applies her extensive management, marketing and sales experience to the rapid growth of new products and services in a health care related environment that will utilize her high professional standard and interpersonal skills with the emphasis on the people and market. Developing corporate marketing initiatives, launching new products, and providing training to health professionals and executives.

The positions Ms Jarvis has held require corporate and strategic planning. Direct customer contact with doctors and hospital personnel with a "hands on" approach to new product launches, workshops, distribution, people management and regulatory know-how.

Prior to Mentor Medical Systems (Aust) Pty. Ltd., Ms Jarvis was the Director of Sales and Marketing for Device Technologies Australia. For eight years Alex worked closely with the Directors and distribution network to develop the business and increase the profitability of the company. The growth achievements have been the best in her career.

Alex prefers to work in a dynamic environment with a "hands on" approach and close contact with customers and key decision-makers. Alex's work experience and education to date have enabled her to acquire a sound working knowledge within the medical industry. Alex has excellent communication skills and a high level of self-motivation, she is well organised, tenacious and totally committed to her career.

Alex was born in the United Kingdom and educated in Educated in the South East and London. Alex holds a Bachelor of Science, having studied at University College London and RGN (Registered General Nurse) studying at University College Hospital.

Alex holds a Business Management Certificate and Certificate in Leadership from the Australian Institute of Management.

MBA-SCU commenced 2001 (currently on hold)

Specialties

Global Sales & Marketing Management, P&L & General Management, Business Development, Business Risk Management , Corporate Strategies, Trusted Business advisor ,Start Up companies, Bio-Tec companies, Business Mentor, Cosmetic Practitioner, Advertising strategy, Email Marketing, Creative Direction & Design, Strategic Planning.